

Symposium Program

April 22 (Friday), 2016

8:30 – 9:00 a.m.

Registration and Continental Breakfast

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

9:00 – 10:00 a.m.

Opening Ceremony: Welcoming Remarks

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

- Xiaoxin WU, Administrative Director, Ricci Institute, University of San Francisco
- Marcelo Camperi, Dean, College of Arts and Sciences, University of San Francisco
- M. Antoni J. ÜÇERLER, S.J., Director, Ricci Institute, University of San Francisco

10:00 – 10:30 a.m.

Photo Session

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

10:30 – 12:00 p.m.

Panel I: A Century of Jesuit Mapmaking in China: the Ricci, Verbiest, and other early Jesuit Maps in China

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

- Theodore Foss [University of Chicago]
Matteo Ricci's Fabrication of a Chinese World View
- Mark Mir [University of San Francisco Ricci Institute]
The World Revealed: Science, Mythology, and the Natural World in Verbiest's Kunyu Quantu
- Paola Demattè [Rhode Island School of Design]
From Ricci to Verbiest: Mapping and geographic research by Giulio Aleni, Francesco Sambiasi, Niccolò Longobardi, Manuel Diaz and others
- Discussant: Florence Hsia [University of Wisconsin-Madison]

12:00 – 1:30 p.m.

Lunch

USF Main Campus

1:30 – 3:00 p.m.

Panel II: European Maps of East Asia, 1500-1800

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

- Paul Begheyn, S.J. [Netherlands Institute of Jesuit Studies, Amsterdam]
Dutch Publications on the Jesuit Mission in China in the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries
- Fung Kam Wing [University of Hong Kong]

European Surveying Instruments, Terrestrial Globes and Map-Making in China and Japan, 1580-1830

- Angelo Cattaneo [Universidade Nova de Lisboa]
Space and Mediality of Knowledge during the European “Age of Exploration & Discovery”
- Discussant: Daniel Crouch

3:30 – 5:00 p.m.

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

Panel III: Chinese Cartography in the Late Ming/Early Qing & its Global Connections

- Timothy Brook [University of British Columbia]
Charting from the Water: The Selden Map and its Non-antecedents
- Walter Davis [University of Alberta]
Cultural Expression and Ethnographic Representation in Chinese Maps of the Ming and Qing Dynasties
- Richard Pegg [MacLean Collection, Mettawa, Illinois]
Qing Cartography and the Tianxia yutu (Maps of all under heaven)
- Discussant: Qiong Zhang [Wake Forest University, North Carolina]

7:30 p.m.

Saint Ignatius Church

“Matteo Ricci: His Map and Music” concert performed by Early Modern Music Ensemble, ¡Sacabuche!

April 23 (Saturday), 2016

8:30 – 9:00 a.m.

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

Continental Breakfast & Registration

9:00 – 10:30 a.m.

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

Panel IV: Japanese and Korean Cartographies during Edo & Joseon Periods

- Lim Jongtae [Seoul National University]
Representing an Ideal World Order of the Past: the Cultural Function of the Jesuit World Maps in Eighteenth-century Korean Government
- Aoyama Hiro'o 青山宏夫 [National Museum of Japanese History 国立歴史民俗博物館, Japan]
The Impact of Ricci's World Maps on the Edo Period of Japan
- Kären Wigen [Stanford University]
Appropriating Asia: How Early Modern Japanese Map-Makers Took On the Five-Continent Framework
- Discussant: Richard Pegg [MacLean Collection, Mettawa, Illinois]

10:40 – 11:20 a.m. Travel to the Asian Art Museum of San Francisco

11:30 – 12:10 p.m. Guided tour of the map exhibit

Asian Art Museum of
San Francisco

1:30 – 2:30 p.m. Panel V: *From Historical Cartography to Mapping the World in the 21st Century

Samsung Hall, Asian
Art Museum

- Ralph Ehrenberg [Library of Congress]
Map Collections of the Far East at the Library of Congress
- Laura Hostetler [University of San Francisco Ricci Institute]
China's Maritime Claims: Perspectives from the History of Cartography

-----Q & A, and Intermissions-----

3:00 – 4:00 p.m.

Samsung Hall, Asian
Art Museum

- Stephen Sandford [Former NASA Engineer & Executive]
The Transformational Power of the Vantage of Space: NASA's Contributions to Cartography and International and Intercultural Exchange
- Ed Parsons [Google Geospatial Programs]
A Global Selfie

April 24 (Sunday)

8:30 – 9:00 p.m. Continental Breakfast & Registration

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

9:00 – 10:30 a.m. Panel VI: *Cartography, Knowledge Transmission, and its Global Significance

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

- Marguerite Ragnow [James Ford Bell Library, University of Minnesota]
Writing Technologies and Special Collections: Agents and Arbiters of Change through the Transmission of Knowledge
- Jose Casanova [Berkeley Center at Georgetown]
Jesuit Contributions to Global Connectivity and Global Consciousness during the Early Modern Era
- Discussant: Timothy Brook / Fu Liangyu [U-M Asian Library, University of Michigan]

11:00 – 12:00 p.m. Panel VII: Final Discussion

McLaren Conference
Center, USF Main
Campus

Format: Roundtable

12:00 – 12:40 p.m. Conference conclusion activities

Gleeson Library, USF
Main Campus

- Thacher Gallery exhibit walk through
- Music presentation by Sacabuche Ensemble